"I Love" Poem

Description: Write a poem (using prose-poetry format) about something that you love. Please do not write about people or pets. Use specific language-proper nouns and sensory details. Also use at least one poetic technique – repetition, figurative language (similes, metaphors, personification).

25pts for the poem + 10pts for decoration = 35pts total

What do you love?

1. List what you love: (Examples: Outdoor school, carnival, the Northwest, dancing, Spring Break, basketball, the rain, coffee, movies, karaoke, long walks on the beach...)

2. Choose one from your list above and describe what you love about it. Be specific. Convince the readers to love what you love too. Do not just write about a bunch of different things that you love (I love... carpet. I love... desk. I love... lamp.)
